From The Vicar And Vicaress

Vladimir and Adelaide Vicar and Vicaress of the great Barony of Caerthe do send most joyful seasons greetings.

We return with happy hearts from the Coronation of Their Royal Majesties Hoegaarden and Chiara and the founding investiture of the new Baron and Baroness of Fontaine dans Sable. We were pleased to see many of you at this wonderful event. Indulgent thanks to Lady Susan and Lord Fergus for sharing their illustrious vocal talents.

While we await the fast approaching announcement of the new Baron and Baroness Caerthe continues its devotion to great merriment. Fencers and onlookers alike enjoyed the antics of Light Metal Mayhem. Also, heartfelt thanks for all those participating in the Toys for Tots Archery and Heavy Weapons events. The generosity of so many good gentles will be appreciated by many parents and children this holiday season. We are also looking forward to our Baronial Yule at the end of the month.

Please join us in welcoming a new officer: Lady Constance Marchet Minster of Children. Please support her in the effort to keep Caerthe strong, creative and light-hearted. Gracious appreciation to the outgoing Minister of Children Lady Elaine de Bearnaise for all her hard work.

On the horizon,WAR! Preparations are under way so make your plans early.

More volunteers are needed and much appreciated – contact War Coordinator Lord Johannes for more information. Let's have a mighty showing to welcome the new Baron and Baroness of Caerthe!

Yours in service,

Vladimir Vicar Adelaide Vicaress

From The Seneschal

Greetings!

Suddenly the end of the year is upon us, and what a year it has been. By the end of this year Caerthe will have hosted 17 events ranging from small fund raisers to major Known World events, and everything in between. When you think of the thousands of hours of volunteer time the Populace of Caerthe has contributed this year the mind truly boggles!

Officers, it is time to send in your Domesday reports. For those of you new to being an officer, a Domesday report is simply a summary of all the activities that have taken place in your office over the last year. The simplest way to create your Domesday report is to gather all of your monthly reports from the year and consolidate them into one, then add any items of interest and your plans for the next year. Email a copy to your Kingdom superior and myself and you are done. You will need to check with you Kingdom superior for a due date but most Domesday reports are due on January 15th.

The end of the year also marks the end of the time that our Barony has been entrusted to the care of our Vicar and Vicaress, Sir Vladimir Ivanovich and Lady Adelaide De Saussay. I want to thank them for all of the time and care they have contributed to Caerthe, you will be missed!

Time marches on, and the New Year will herald the arrival of our new Baron and Baroness at Caerthen Twelfth Night. Both sets of candidates have shown themselves to be honorable and worthy of the position and I'm looking forward to working with whoever Their Majesties select. The final selection of Baron and Baroness will be announced by Their Majesties at Baronial Yule on December 12th.

Finally, the end of the year is always a time to look back and give thanks for what we have, and this year is special to me as my time as your Seneschal grows short. I would like to thank our former Baron and Baroness, Their Majesties Hoegaarden and Chiara, and our Vicar and Vicaress, Sir Vladimir and Lady Adelaide, for making my job so much fun. I would like to thank all of the officers of Schola Metallorum, Hawks Hollow and Caerthe for making my job so easy. I want to thank the whole Populace of Caerthe for making the Barony a place I am PROUD to be Seneschal of. Finally, I want to thank my wife, Lady Constance, and my little girl Katrina for all of their patience and support.

The last year has been amazing and things are only getting better. Keep it up!

THL Robert Marchet

Seneschal – The Barony of Caerthe

From The Exchequer

Greetings Cousins, from Wilham,

1. Thank you to Johan of the Northern Moors for his many years of service to the Barony. He has left a legacy of good financial accounting, strong baronial accounts, and a pair of large shoes to fill.

2. Congratulations to the autocrats, volunteers, and the Barony for a financially successful Known World event. It was a huge undertaking with a budget of over $17,000. Good luck to the same winning team on your bid to host the Known World SCA anniversary in a few years.

3. We are reevaluating our financial policies, event financial policies, budgets, and unallocated fund priorities. Forward your input to me. Our initial plan is to reevaluate our annual minimum operating budget and have that equal our prudent reserve. Thus, total annual charges for: post office box, bank account, web site, storage locker, etc. along with seed money for one year of events will be our prudent reserve.

4. I am currently recruiting a Deputy Chancellor of the Exchequer. It is a warranted position of great responsibility and effort. Forward your requests for consideration to me.

5. Several members have expressed concern over the cost of our events, especially given our current account balance. First, I would like to state that our current balance is the result of several years of the Barony saving money. Second, I have spoken with autocrats and officers of the Barony and am convinced that the cost of events is less related to our desire for profit, than it is related to the cost of sites and our desire to host a fun and inclusive event. Therefore the best way the populace can effect the cost of events is by personally committing time to the search for more reasonably priced event sites.

6. Lastly I would like to state for the record and to correct any misconceptions, "The Barony must make a profit at events." Our current annual budget must come from somewhere. Event profit is our group's current only significant source of income. This is true SCA wide and within compliance with our non-profit status. For us, "non-profit" has more to do with "personal financial benifit" that event profit.

Best wishes to all,

Wilham

Caerthen Lampworker's Guild:

The Denver Jewelry Academy has kindly offered to allow me the use of a classroom for the Lampworkers Guild twice a month on Wednesday evenings. If you've always wanted to melt a glass rod and turn it into a glass bead but never had a chance, now is the time. The cost per visit will be $5. The first 2 times a person attends a guild meeting, all materials used are free. After that you will need to supply your own MAPP gas ($7.42 per canister at Wal-Mart) and glass.

The lampwork tools used by the Baronial members are the property of Jorunn and are on loan to the lampworkers guild for use by all members. With the exception of largesse donation rules, all beads made by the participant are theirs to keep. Imagine making your own buttons for that Cotehardie you've been putting off. This is the place to learn how!

The associated Naja Jewelry Supply Store is also expanding their business to include lampwork supplies. The will carry the Effetre glass and Hot Head Torches used by the guild members, plus much more. The store closes at 5 during the week, but is open on Saturdays: www.najatools.com for more information.

Caerthen Twelfth Night

Twelfth Night in Renaissance Venice

January 3, 2004

Though mountain snows cap the peaks to the north, hearts are warm and spirits high in Venice, as Yuletide festivities light the winter nights. Music, comedy, dancing, feasting and fun await those who would join Sir Vlad and Lady Adelaide, Vicar and Vicaress of Caerthe, in Caerthe's annual celebration of the season.

Among the activities planned are: An area for musical and other performances will be set aside all day. Please contact Lord Fergus (see below) if you are interested in performing. There will be informal card and board games, dancing, merchants, and contests for those most beautifully clad in the Italian style (with a special prize for the person/group who most closely resembles an Italian Renaissance painting), plus special activities for children. And, of course, this event will mark the installation of the next Baron and/or Baroness of Caerthe!

Merchants! Please contact Captain Fionn (see below) if you are interested in merchanting at this event!

The feast will be prepared and presented by members of The Stewpot, under the direction of Despotissa Eirene Tzimiskina Kontostephanina. Three courses will be served throughout the course of the day. The first course, which will be served around noon, will be included in the site fee for the event. The second course will be served around midafternoon, with the last course being served in the early evening.

The event will be held at the Adams County Fairgrounds, 9755 Henderson Rd. Brighton, CO 80601. The site will open at 8:00 am and close at 9:00 pm. Directions: From the north and south, take I-25 to north Denver (Northglenn) and exit east on 104th Ave. Continue on 104th to Riverdale Road, about 3.5 miles. University of Caerthe

Note: The University of Caerthe is now meeting at Mountain Keep Hall.

Our next University will be on December 10, when Lady Kseniya will talk to us about the growth and development of Russian monasticism after the introduction of Orthodoxy into Russia around 1000 AD. She will discuss similarities and differences between Western and Eastern monasticism (one example being that Western monastics usually belonged to an order, such as Dominican or Franciscan, while Russian Orthodoxy does not have orders of monks) and how Russian monastics influenced the development of Russian culture and civilization. By 1500, many monastic colonies had been established outside the cities, as monasteries in rural Russia or as missionary houses in those areas of Russia that were still pagan.

We will meet at 7:30 P.M., December 10, the second Wednesday of the month, at Mountain Keep Hall, the home of Baroness Judith de Beaumont, 1553 Fillmore Street, Denver, CO 80206. All are encouraged to attend. Period garb is optional, but appreciated. For further information, call Baroness Judith, 303-399-2971, Lady Kseniya, 720-981-0478, or Master Robin Vinehall, 303-444-5004.

From the Scribe's Guild:

The Scribes Guild meets on the 2nd and 3rd Mondays of each month. No experience is needed, and loaner equipment and supplies are available. Come learn (or teach!) the fascinating arts of calligraphy and illumination. Guild meetings are held from 7:00 - 9:00 pm at the home of THL Wyndylyn, 15912 East Lehigh Circle. Please contact THL Wyndylyn (303-680-1583) for directions, or the Guild Head, THL Arwen (303-765-7040) or smcclune@earthlink.net) for more information.

Dance Practice

Dance practice takes place at Ross-University Hills Library or Park Hill Branch Library every Thursday. Please call THL Guillaume de Gonzac at 303-756-7040, or email: swashbuckler@caerthe.org for the exact monthly schedule.

From the absolute basics to the final touch.

Six drops of ink, one piece of paper, a tiny french curve, a book on Persian art, or a sheet of gold leaf; the Caerthan Scriptorium has it all and it is all available to the populace third and fourth Sundays of the month.

Call Wyndylyn at 303-680-1583 for more information and directions to 15912 E. Lehigh Circle. Aurora. Private residence, no smoking indoors, no visiting animals.

Ruminations

For many of you the following thoughts will be points well marked on your journeys through the SCA. For others, however, you may glean some new grains of information with which to learn and grow. As we find ourselves in the midst of a polling, as well as perennial discussions about the best use of Baronial resources, it may be timely to talk briefly of the difference between voting and polling. So, if you would be so kind as to indulge a lady, I would be most grateful.

There are those who believe we are an absolute monarchy: they believe in the complete power of the Crown, whether it is in the spirit of the late 15th cent. Courts or the hard-won hero power of the Celtic and Viking early periods. These gentles support the Crown of the Outlands above all else. Then there are those who believe that the Crown is a Head of State Monarchy with councils, senates, and great houses or guilds that are the true power of the Kingdom, as in the age of reason in Vienna or in Elizabeth's England. These gentles will never fail to defend their right to argue, coerce, or make demands on the Crown in the interests of their Kingdom. Both approaches – and everything in between – are appropriate aspects of our game. Diversity is essential.

As Caerthe holds its current polling, wherein the Crown generously asks for our opinions about Baronial candidates, you may find yourself edging toward one school of thought or the other. You may find yourself with those same thoughts regarding the use of Barional resources or other such matters. So why do Ruling Nobles and the Crown conduct pollings rather than votes? Why is polling not voting? As mundanes we assume entitlement to our voting rights, as well we should. However, voting, by nature, is limited to fixed answers – yes, no, or abstain. Polling, on the other hand, allows for a spectrum of responses and possibilities. It is the rightful and proper responsibility of the Ruling Nobles and the Crown to appreciate and to weigh the opinions of their Peers and the Populace with all the subtlety with which those opinions are expressed. Because each of us will see a facet of the question or candidate before us, and very few will see any situation in its entirety, it is important to appreciate that a vote and a polling are two very different things.

Just as we let our interests be known, so too we put our trust in the Crown and in the Ruling Nobles to make hard decisions. We assusme the best from our leaders, and it works. So however you choose to play in the SCA it is good and wise to remember that we all play to support the Kingdom of the Outlands and this great Barony of Caerthe together.

Esse quam videri,

Adelaide Vicaress
